

Interview skills - Preparing for your Consultant Post: 16 July 2020 6-8.30pm

4 external CPD points (including e-learning)

Introduction

This live webinar helps to guide you, as a senior doctor, through the process of applying successfully for your consultant post. It offers an overview of the application, recruitment and selection process as well as the more practical skills around how to market yourself via CVs/application forms, handling nerves, what to wear in an interview situation and which NHS-related topics could potentially come up during the interview. You will also have an opportunity to practise interview techniques, receiving constructive feedback from your peers and an experienced trainer.

Dr Senthil Senniappan MD, FRCPCH, MSc, PhD, Consultant Paediatric Endocrinologist, Honorary Senior Lecturer & Clinical Director, will be co-facilitating the session. Dr Senniappan has been working as a Consultant in NHS for more than 6 years and has trained many candidates for successful interviews over the course of several years. Dr Senniappan sits in the Consultant & CSAC interview panels and has wider experience of conducting and facilitating interviews. He is also a regular MRCPCCH Examiner.
